

ROAD TRIP

INTRODUCTION

The workplace might be the last location where you'd consider mentioning your faith. But it just might be the most important. What if God strategically placed you in your workplace for that very purpose? In this session, we'll discuss the idea of mixing business with God's greatest pleasure.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What do you think about being salt and light in your workplace? Do you feel that it is appropriate? Do you feel that it is important? Why or why not?
2. Have you observed other people being salt and light in the workplace? What good examples come to mind? Have you seen any bad examples?
3. How have you been able to be salt and light at your workplace? What challenges have you run into? What results have you seen?
4. What are ways to bring up discussions about faith in the workplace without being confrontational?
5. What are the benefits of praying specifically for the people you work with? Would you be willing to do this on a regular basis?
6. What can you start doing to be salt and light in your work environment?

THINK ABOUT IT

Why do you think God has you in your current occupation? Who do you have the opportunity to influence?

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

What is something specific you can do this week that will draw the attention of those around you to your heavenly Father?

CHANGING YOUR MIND

In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven. -Matthew 5:16
